COVID19 Update

Masks will remain mandatory next week. The Department of Catholic Schools shared that "the new procedures with the red zone designation for masking have proven to be difficult. Looking at the numbers, we anticipate all counties being in red next week so you could go ahead and communicate that" masks will be mandatory.

Schools will now receive an email Friday morning with the mask designations for the upcoming week, which I will continue to communicate in this space.

Our St. Henry Bingo took a giant shift on the calendar and moved to Monday nights! From now on, Mondays will be for bingo in our humble cafeteria and this should give us the opportunity to have less impact on vacation schedules and holiday schedules for volunteers and players alike. Tell your friends, your neighbors, the people you're in line next to at the grocery store, anybody that will listen! Because of the change of day, last night was a lighter crowd than usual: 88 of our neighbors came out to support us. Our fabulous volunteers went out of their way to make sure everyone had a great time and felt welcome so that the word gets out.

We sold just over 15,000 pulltabs, paid out over $14,000 in winnings, and gave away two Butterball turkeys thanks to the efforts of our regular fourth week volunteers and the parents that came to sell pulltabs for their class. All told, we recorded over $2,500 in revenue for the night to help our school to continue to provide such a great education for our children. Special thanks to all who came out for our inaugural Monday night bingo: Don Adkins, Ryan Bihl, Deanna Bills, Laura Braun, Matt Christophel, Anna Crawford, Judy Crowder, Allison Duff, Karen Egan, Jennifer Fedders, Josh Feldman, Suzi Francis, Meghan Franks, Dan Hukle, Gina Hyland, Larry Klein, Marc Litzler, Jamie O'Neill, Tracy Patrick, Jamie Powers, Dani Powers, Katie Sieg, & Ellen Skalski.
