2022-2023 School Calendar

Good afternoon,

It's hard to believe that we've completed another year. Sometimes it feels like the time flies by, other times it feels like it's hardly moving.

We're hard at work on closing down this past year while beginning preparation for the 2022-23 school year. Grades are uploaded on Sycamore and MAP results are being processed now. Please give us until Tuesday to upload all of the MAP results.

We're open between 9 AM - 1 PM Monday - Thursday during the summer, so if you have any questions or need to drop anything off at school, please come see us!

Welcome Ryann Scott to the team as our new theater teacher. Ms. Jodi Litzler will also be continuing in first grade. We're very close to fully filling our staff. An updated staff list is here.

Lastly, it's an honor to be your principal. I'm grateful to be able to work with our staff, our parents and our children. It isn't without challenge or stress, but I'm humbled to be able to call myself principal at St. Henry. I look forward another great school, but before that let's all enjoy and have a great summer!

St. Henry, pray for us!

Art Supplies Received

Mrs. Turvey sends a huge thank you for the many craft supply donations to the Art Room! All are greatly appreciated!

Book Fair Success

The book fair was once again a success! Over $5,000 in books were sold, surpassing the last few fairs that we held during Covid. The profit from the fair is turned into Scholastic Dollars used to purchase new books for the library, classroom carpets, book shelves, and furniture for books. This money is also used to purchase incentives/prizes to use at future book fairs as well as building classroom libraries.

It happens during a busy, crazy time but well worth it! Thanks, everyone!
