2022-2023 School Calendar

Good afternoon,

We hope that you've had a great week. Just a few reminders today that are included below before the rest of the newsletter.

The Lady Crusader Invitational is still going strong - thanks to all the volunteers that have helped make this happen, and the volunteers on the schedule today and moving forward.

We have one more week until Catholic Schools Week with a lot of fun activities planned each day for families and children. We look forward to celebrating together.

Today marks our first week of having registration open for next school year - 2023-24. If you have questions about registration, please reach out to Kristina Goodridge today in the office or next week.

Let's cheer those tiger stripes to victory - WHO DEY!

St. Henry, pray for us!

News from St. Henry District High School

As you may have heard, St. Henry District High School is in the process of starting football! An important component is to reach our feeder schools to spark interest at a young age. We are fortunate enough to have a couple of stakeholders who are all-in on this process. They are working day and night to promote our school and program. This spring, we are starting a flag football league for 1st-8th grades. Visit them online to register and to learn more!
