2023-2024 School Calendar

Dear Parents,

Now that we have a full week under our belt I think we are officially back in the school groove! Our students have been working hard as we get ready to start our winter MAP testing next week. Before we get into testing we took some time today to recognize the hard work of our students over the last two quarters by giving out awards for Specials, Alpha-Beta Club Awards, 1st & 2nd Honors, and Crusading Christian Awards. It was wonderful being able to recognize our students' many accomplishments! Speaking of accomplishments, congratulations to our students who received honorable mentions in the St. Henry District High School art competition: June Vandergriff and Victoria Wilke! Also, see below for a list of students who have been offered scholarships to attend SHDHS next year due to their outstanding High School Placement Test scores. We are so proud of all of you!

As we begin to think about next year we have a couple of things for you to keep in mind. First, there are Open House signs at the entrances to the school. Please pick one up this afternoon and place it in your yard. You can also download the Open House advertisement in this newsletter and share it to your social media feed or share one of our Open House posts. Our parents are our greatest advertisers! We are also beginning to look at staffing for next year and hope to be hiring an additional 3rd and 4th grade teacher due to anticipated enrollment numbers. If you know of someone who will be looking for a teaching position next year please be sure to mention our school!

Next Monday, January 15 early enrollment opens for our current school families. Please take the time to get your students enrolled for next year to guarantee their place. Information went home about enrollment with your students this week and you can find all of the instructions HERE.

Finally, we did a test of our emergency text message notification system this morning around 10:30am. If you did not receive a text message please check your phone number in Sycamore and contact the school office. This one of the ways that we will communicate about school closings or emergency situations so we want to make sure everyone will receive those messages.

Don't forget that we do not have school on Monday due to Martin Luther King Jr. Day! Enjoy your long weekend!

God Bless,

Mrs. Kimberly Wagner

Eucharistic Miracle of

BAGNO DI ROMAGNA

ITALY, 1412

In 1412, the then prior of the Basilica of St. Mary of Bagno di Romagna, Fr. Lazzaro da Verona, while celebrating the Holy Mass, was assailed by doubts about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament. He had just pronounced the words of consecration of the wine when this was transformed into living Blood and began to flow from the chalice and land on the corporal. Fr. Lazzaro, profoundly moved and repentant, confessed his unbelief to the faithful present at the celebration and the profound miracle that the Lord had worked before his eyes.

Interior of the basilica

At Bagno di Romagna, in the Basilica of St. Maria Assumed, the relic of the Eucharistic miracle of the "Holy Cloth Soaked by Blood" is preserved. The historian Fortunio thus describes the miracle in his noted work Annales Camaldulenses: "It was the year 1412. The Camaldolese abbey of Santa Maria in Bagno (then Priorato) was governed by Don Lorenzo, of Venetian origin. While he was celebrating the Divine Sacrifice, his mind was occupied, by a diabolical work, with a strong doubt about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament; when he then saw the sacred species of the wine flow over the chalice and land on the corporal in the form of wine and living Blood, and thus the corporal remained soaked. It cannot be told how great was his emotion and perturbation of mind in that instant in the face of such a profound event. In tears he turned to the bystanders, confessing his unbelief and the miracle which now had taken place before his eyes."

The monk Lazzaro was then transferred to Bologna as chaplain of the female Camaldolese convent of St. Christine, where he died in 1416. The Camaldolese held the Parish of Bagno until the Napoleonic suppression of 1808; from then the Parish - Basilica of St. Mary Assumed, after having been held for a brief period by the diocese of Sansepolcro, in 1975 passed definitively to become part of the diocese of Cesena. In 1912, Cardinal Gilio Boschi, Archbishop of Ferrara, celebrated the fifth centenary of the miracle, which was followed by a conference on Eucharistic studies. In 1958, His Excellency Domenico Bornigia, had a chemical analysis done on the marks of the corporal of the miracle at the University of Florence, which confirmed them to be of an ematic nature. In the basilica is found a colored and very rare incision on wood from 1400 called "The Madonna of the Blood," which is found in the third chapel on the left. This image is thus named because, as Benedetto Tenaci, abbot of Bagno and eye witness of the miracle on May 20, 1948, tells us, the icon bled from the left arm. Every year, during the Feast of Corpus Christi, the corporal is carried in procession through the streets of the city and is exposed on every Sunday of the temperate season which lasts from March to November, at the Mass celebrated at 11 AM.
